Johnny Tremain Part IV “The Rising Eye”

In chapter one, Johnny described the eye on the Lyte’s cup as rising, while Cilla said that it might be a setting eye. Given that the title of this chapter is “The Rising Eye”, yet Johnny’s encounter with the Lyte’s does not go well, what do you make of both the chapter title and Johnny’s and Cilla’s predictions? Fill out the following chart.

In what ways does Cilla’s view of the emblem on the cup come true in this chapter? List two ways it does.
In what ways does Johnny’s view of the emblem on the cup come true in this chapter? List two ways it does.

Make some predictions based on the following questions...

1. We are four chapters into the book, do you think Johnny will have any more encounters with Merchant Lyte? If so, how might they interact again?

2. How much more can we get out of the conflicting views of the Lytes emblem?

What else might rise in the story?	What else might set in the story?
